Salary: Main Scale/UPS

The Oak Tree Academy is sponsored by the Northern Education Trust. A KS2 teacher is required for Feb 2018 to cover maternity leave.

The governors of the Academy are seeking to appoint an outstanding teacher to be responsible for teaching in a KS2 Class:

- An outstanding classroom practitioner with a relentless commitment to ensuring a highly inclusive and nurturing learning environment where well-being and academic achievement of all children are the core purpose
- Excellent understanding of assessment and the use of data to ensure high expectations can be met
- Experience of establishing strong and effective relationships with parents and external services
- A commitment to the ethos and delivery of education in a through school setting

In return we will offer:

- Happy, confident and aspirational students who express a real pride in their school
- Expert staff in all areas with a passion for learning and a determination to ensure all students maximise their potential
- Calm and purposeful learning environments
- Excellent partnerships between students, staff, parents, governors and community
- A forward-thinking and innovative approach to teaching and learning throughout the school
